Run No	Date	Hare	Location
1022	3 April	Terry Morrow	Top carpark, Peak Tram
		Guest Appearance, Paul Moony-Sidney Hash
1023	10 April	Ian Miller	Since he offered to set the run he's fucked off without trace.
1024	17 April	Elvis	One things for sure you won't be lonesome tonight, starts outside the Heart Break Hotel, ready teddy go at 6, no hound dog's, blue suede shoes optional, has he been seen with your girl? that arouses suspision, apparently he loves a tender, we're all washed up at the jail house so lets have a party,..... Thank god he's dead, Elvis that is, not Elvis.
1026	24 April	Smith	Shatin, an A to B souds like another unmittigated fuck up.

Well, wasn't it nice to have a good run for a change, clearly marked, good checks, nice variation, bit of shiggy, pleasant run in. Obviously set by one of this years commitee.

I understand the Vicar was allowed to hold the chalk on occasions and Drew let him carry the bag of flour for most of the trail setting- an honour for an old commitee member, I'm sure he'll agree.

Sir David's new man no stranger to hot seat

HOT from what sounds like the set of Yes Prime Minister comes a new private secretary to Sir David Wilson.

Taking over from incumbent Richard Hoare on April Fools Day will be the vividly-named Clinton Leeks.

That's Leeks as in vegetables, and not Leaks as in the kind of thing the new man will be out to stop.

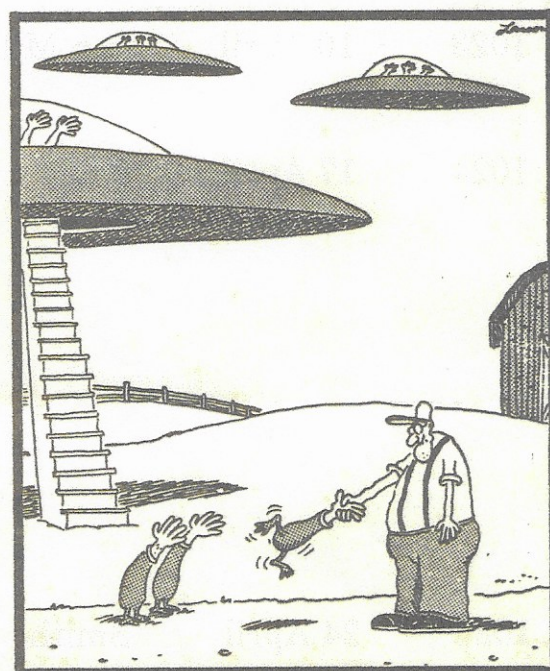

One coleauge who had previously work with Leaks said "I don't why they employed him, I spent my last 3 years trying to get him sacked"

Mr Leeks, already at work waiting to fill the hot seat, has to deal with daily jests about his name but has filled a few important positions in his time.

He has just come back from a posting in London with the Foreign and Commonwealth Office.

Before that, he was in Security Branch handling delicate matters such as the future of the garrison and the police.

Leaks said of his last post "Working with cop pers is very difficult, you never know which side of the fence they're on".

Inadvertently, Roy dooms the entire earth to annihilation when, in an attempt to be friendly, he seizes their leader by the head and shakes vigorously.
